

Vision

To ensure inclusiveness throughout our service area of people with disabilities, so that they can participate as equal community members, by providing the necessary skills and tools to enhance independence and actualize their true potential.

Mission

To assist all people with any disability across Northern Arizona to live the most independent, self-directed life possible, while educating the general public on the needs and issues surrounding people with disabilities.

Values and Beliefs

- All people are deserving of dignity and respect.
- Work to fill unmet needs for people with disabilities.
- Committed to focusing on our client's abilities.
- Always strive to collaborate with community partners for the good of all people.
- Be mindful of the need for integrity and transparency with our funding partners.
- Accepting of all viewpoints and receptive to new ideas from within the organization, from our consumers, and from our community partners.
